By the Lords Justices General and General Governours of IRELAND,

A PROCLAMATION.

Hu. Armach, Tho. Wyndham C. Ralph Gore.

WHEREAS we have received His Majesty's Royal Pleasure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty Second Day of this Instant April, should be further prorogued to Thursday the Second Day of September next; We do therefore hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is hereby further prorogued to Thursday the Second Day of September next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the Seventh Day of April, 1731.

By their Excellencies Command,
Tho. Tickell.

GOD Save the KING.

Hague, April 24, N. S. The Assembly of the States of the Province of Holland continues fixed for To-morrow, the greatest Part of the Members being already arrived. Those of Guelderland are to assemble this Day, and some of the Deputies that were here are gone to assist at their Assembly. M. Hurgronje, one of the Plenipotentiaries from their High Mightinesses at the Congress of Soissons, arrived here last Sunday; and will, immediately after his having made his Report to the States, go into Zealand. Sir Cyril Wych, his Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Hanse Towns, arrived here the 22d Instant: He proposes leaving this Place To-morrow on his Way to Hambourg. By the changing of the Garrisons, two Battallions of Swiss are come hither this Day to relieve the Guards, who have been here these Fourteen Years, and will leave this Place the 26th to march to Maestricht, where they are to be garrisoned for three Years.

St. James's, April 13.

This Day Dr. Edward Wilmot had the Honour to kiss their Majesties Hands, upon his being appointed Physician in Ordinary to Her Majesty.

Whereas a Letter has been lately sent to John Gray, living in Mortimer, in the County of Hampshire, Gamekeeper to the Right Honourable the Lady Dowager Ann Powlet, threatning him with Death if he did not forbear molesting those who killed her Ladyship's Game in the Mannor of Mortimer; that shortly after several young Trees were cut down and destroyed in a Plantation belonging to her Ladyship, and many Gates broke to Pieces, and other Outrages privately committed: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in any of the said Facts, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned therein, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, the said Right Honourable the Lady Dowager Ann Powlet does hereby promise, that whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in the said unlawful Acts, or either of them, so as he or they may be convicted thereof, shall, upon such Conviction, receive from her as a Reward, the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

An Powlett.

Admiralty-Office, April 6, 1731.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby pleased to direct, That all such disabled Seamen, as are minuted to be received into the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, do make their Appearance at this Office on Tuesday the 4th of May next, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning.

J. Burchett.

Pay-Office, Horse Guards, April, 17, 1731.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury having directed Six Months Half Pay to the Reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines to the 24th of December last; These are to give Notice, that upon Thursday the 22d of this Instant April, Attendance will be given at the Office aforesaid, for Payment of the same accordingly.

H. Pelham.

The Court of Directors of the Governour and Company of the Bank of England do hereby give Notice, That they have chosen James Collier, to be one of their Cashiers, (in the Room of Wollaston Shenton, who is deceased) and have appointed him to sign Bills and Notes for the said Governour and Company.

D. Le Gros, Secr.

East India House, April 9, 1731.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be holden at the East India House in Leaden-hall-street, London, on Friday the 23d of this Instant April, from Nine a Clock in the Morning till Six in the Afternoon, to chuse a Director in the Room of a Gentleman who has disqualified himself by transferring his Stock in the said Company; and that the Transfer Books of the said Company will for this Reason be shut on Thursday the 22d, to Monday the 26th Instant.
